HOME COMING DAY. This is the day set to bring home the Church Dollars which have gotten lost during the summer months. If you haven't found the dollar yet bring it next Sunday.

This evening 6:30 p. m. Young People's Meeting. Subject, "The Disciples of Christ: Organization and Aims." This is an interesting subject, we are looking for a good attendance. The meeting last Sunday evening was very helpful.

Napoleon said "God is on the side of the heaviest battalions." Was he right? This will be a part of the discussion at the evening service. There will be special music by the orchestra. Also good singing.

BIBLE SCHOOL 9:45 A. M. Notwithstanding the rain last Sunday there was a good attendance at the Bible school. There is room for more. Every member of the Church and as many more should be in the school.

MONDAY 8:00 P. M. Orchestra practice. This has been changed from Tuesday to Monday evening. The practice will be held at 1529 Cascade Ave.

THURSDAY 7:30 P. M. Meeting for prayer, fellowship and Bible study. This mid-week service is very helpful. A praying Church is a going and a growing Church.

FRIDAY 8:00 P. M. Chorus Rehearsal. This Church has a loyal group of singers. Their service is much appreciated.

THANKSGIVING. The Ministerial Association is planning a very interesting service for Thanksgiving morning. In the evening will be given a Pilgrim's Program by the Chorus of this Church under the direction of Mrs. W. D. Morgan.

WORLD CALL. An international Magazine for the Disciples of Christ, published by the United Christian Missionary Society. This magazine covers our entire work. See Mrs. Stovall for subscriptions.

A FAILURE?

"But seeing ye put it from you." Acts 13:46.

"How is it," asked a man of a minister, "that your religion has been going on for nearly two thousand years and has not influenced more people than it has done?"

For reply the minister asked another question: "How is it that water has been flowing for more than 20,000 years and many people are still dirty?" It is not the fault of Christianity that people go without the remedy for human ill, but the loss is theirs all the same. Christianity is not a failure. The gospel is not a failure. Wherever it is preached in fidelity it wins. But there are some who "put it from them."

HIS LIKENESS

There is a story told of a great sculptor who longed to carve a statue of Christ. He worked upon a block of marble for three years and then, calling a little child, asked whether she knew who it was.

"No," said the child, "I don't know. It may be some big man; I don't know."

The sculptor knew he had failed, and, falling on his knees in sorrow, he asked the Lord to help him try again.

Years longer he worked and prayed, and prayed, and at last again called a child of the household. "Do you know who it is?" he asked her.

She looked upon the marble face for a moment, and, with tears streaming down her own, cried out: "It is the One who said 'Come unto me.'"

Then the sculptor knew that he had caught in his marble something of the divine likeness he had sought for.

If we are Christians, it ought to be possible for all to see in us some resemblance to Christ. They should be able to point to our patience, our lovingness, our ready forgiveness, our faithfulness, and say: "That is Christ in him."

We could never bring out the likeness alone; but if we will develop it surely, so that, though we see it not, our friends cannot fail to recognize His likeness.
